Colindale Children's Chess Tournament

Sunday 24th September 2017

Time: 1.45 to 5.30 pm

Venue: The Pulse Community Flat,

15 Ostler Court, Charcot Road, Colindale NW9 5XW

Entry fee: £25 (£26.50 if not ECF Silver) Last date of entry: Tuesday 19th September

ECF graded Childrens' chess tournament with training in-between matches by experienced chess coaches. This event will be run under the supervision of Marc Shaw.

This event is aimed at players starting to play competitive games and capable of recording at least the opening of their games. Please bring a scoring book and a pen to record your chess moves. The emphasis is on finding ways to improve using their own games as a starting point, with advice and improvements offered as well as explanations of why moves are played.

Endgame ideas and principles are demonstrated by using studies and examples from the event. This is a social and educational event where having fun is as important as learning.

Please bring your own refreshments.

Schedule: Arrival 1.45 pm, Round one 2.00 pm. We aim for 5 rounds.

Entries are limited so please enter early to avoid disappointment.

Phone or email entries must pay in advance. BACS available by request.

We do provide supervision for the children for the entire session.

The nearest parking is at Colindale station, 2 minutes' walk from the venue.
